THE STATE PRISON.

There is one State institution which the Republican party can turn over to the Democracy with pride, if they demand it. In no one Administration has so much been done for the State Prison as in that of General Bitterman. It is doubtful if all previous ones have done more real, lasting work since the main building itself was built. Effective and reliable water works have been built. A fine steam pump fills a tank capable of holding 15,000, on top of the hill back of the quarry, high enough to throw a stream over the whole place. The pipes are so arranged that the engine can turn its stream in any direction, and so aid that from the reservoir. The pump house is a solid stone building put up by prison labor. A new cut-stone building, 25x45, has been erected. The lower story is used for a carpenter shop, the upper for a tailor shop. New bath houses have been built. Sixty feet of new wall, 18 feet high, have been built, taking in some of the old Hot Springs Hotel grounds. The grounds in front of the prison have been transformed. A handsome wall, 6 feet high, has been built along the Virginia road about 700 feet, and two very picturesque towers put up for guards. A fine curb and stone steps have been put up at the front entrance, and large stone lamp posts put there, and on either side of the gateway where visitors first enter the grounds. The whole plat of ground has been sown to grass and planted with trees, and the effect is excellent. A hospital with 4 cells and a hallway is now going up, also a guard tower inside the walls. The sanitary regulations are as perfect as human skill can make them. The food is the best of its kind, and perfectly adapted to the life the men lead. Cleanliness is enforced everywhere. The benches, tools and tables all shine with scrubbing. Out of an average of 144 only three deaths have occurred, one from wounds inflicted by a convict, one from heart disease and one from dysentery. Everything in and about the establishment shows excellent management and discipline.

ISTHMUS CANALS.

There are now two projects on foot for American inter-oceanic canals: DeLesseps', and the Nicaragua. DeLesseps' scheme is denounced as a humbug. There are some suspicious circumstances connected with his project. One-tenth of the proceeds of the stock sold by his company, equivalent to $6,000,000, goes to the promoters of the enterprise. The company guarantees six per cent. interest per year on the par value of the stock, from the date of the commencement of operations. As it will take ten years to build the canal, it is difficult to see where the dividends are to come from during that period, unless out of the capital furnished by the stockholders. Indeed, it appears that the canal could never pay such a rate of interest out of its earnings, as its construction will cost over $500,000,000, on which six per cent. interest would be over $30,000,000—a sum which the canal cannot reasonably be expected ever to net in a year. The DeLesseps Co. advertise extensively in France by the same methods adopted by patent medicine men in this country; posting bills, distributing circulars in the shops, printing their prospectus on wrapping papers, etc. They sell shares in $5 parcels, and give to each purchaser a 5-franc silver medal; an expedient which suggests the American practice of donating a chromo. It is asserted by Paris correspondents of American newspapers that the DeLesseps scheme is little short of a humbug.

Gen. Grant has espoused the project for a Nicaragua canal, and will advocate it in the next number of the North American Review.

Capt. Eads is trying to enlist American capital in support of his plan for a ship railway across the Isthmus of Tehuantepec. He is going to ask Congress to guarantee a six per cent.

dividend on $50,000,000, in consideration of transporting free for 99 years all United States war vessels, mails and troops. At the end of 99 years the Mexican Government is to pay two-thirds of the value of the works and take possession of them. The total estimated cost is $75,000,000, and the time required is four years. He hopes the Government will improve the opportunity and defeat the French scheme at Panama.

We hope that any canal or ship railway between the Atlantic and Pacific will be built and controlled by Americans. The control of such a canal or railway by any foreign power would be dangerous in the event of a war between the United States and any European nation possessed of a formidable navy.

NEW YEAR'S DAY IN NEW YORK.

Soup, in the form of bouillon, was served to many callers in the fashionable houses of New York on New Year's day, to a great extent taking the place of wine. This a change for the better. It is estimated that many gentlemen in the metropolis must have imbibed fully five quarts of bouillon in the course of their rounds of calling, allowing no more than half a gill to each call. Had the same quantity of wine been swallowed, the consequences must have been deplorable.

It is now the custom in New York, with ladies who have a wide acquaintance, to send out cards of invitation to gentlemen, stating that they will be at home on New Year's. They are thus able to restrict the number of their visitors to reasonable proportions. It a gentleman receives a card, he knows that his company is desired; otherwise, of course, he stays away. Many gentlemen who do not care to make fatiguing calls, send their cards by messenger or through the mail, in lieu of appearing in person. The most fashionable cards this season were decorated by hand with little paintings of flowers, etc. These ranged in price all the way from $5 to $50 per hundred. Bouquets were much in demand for New Year's gifts, costing from $5 to $50 each. The florists, in consequence, did a fine business. Choice roses sold from 25 cents to $1.50 apiece. There was good sleighing in New York on New Year's day, and the use of a sleigh for two persons cost $50; larger vehicles on runners bringing much higher figures. The sleighing put the hackmen at a disadvantage, and a carriage could be had for $10.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Gen. Garfield bewails the miseries already caused him by office seekers. They invade his privacy at Mentor and pester him for places. No wonder he is in no hurry to go to Washington. He says he looks upon the Presidency as a prison. He likens his position to that of the crocodile which while lying asleep with its mouth open is invaded by the crafty ichneumon.

The ichneumon creeps down the crocodile's throat and gnaws at the vitals of its host. Gen. Garfield considers himself worse off than the crocodile, because he is attacked by a thousand parasites, while the crocodile may escape with one. Gen. Grant adds, from a ripe experience, that the President is at a further disadvantage as compared with the crocodile, because the latter is attacked only when asleep by the ichneumon, while the President's parasites pester him when he is awake.

The Enterprise insists that, "To discriminate against a woman because she is a wife and on that ground alone to deny her employment as a public school teacher is to perpetrate a flagrant act of injustice." The Enterprise leaves entirely out of consideration the fact that babies are usually the result of marriage. The child-bearing teacher is certainly incapacitated for months at a time for the practice of her profession. For months before, and for months after, she brings a child into the world the married lady teacher must give up her school. As frequent changes of teachers are not desirable in any school, the consideration we have mentioned is a strong and valid objection to the employment of married lady teachers.

The Supreme Court of the United States has recently decided that a railroad company is responsible for any accident happening to a passenger in a Pullman car to the same extent that it would be liable for an accident to a passenger riding in an ordinary car.

The railroad companies have contended that, as the Pullman cars belong exclusively to the Pullman Co., suit must be brought against that company, in such cases. The decision referred to was given in the case of a man who was badly hurt while sitting in a Pullman car, by the fall of an upper birth upon his head.

The value of whiskey as a cure for consumption has received recognition from high medical authorities. The assertion may be ventured that any consumptive, by the liberal use of whiskey and taking abundant exercise in the open air, with due attention to the general laws of health, may effect a complete cure. Of course, in advanced stages of consumption, there is not much hope of success from any treatment.

Probably J. G. Fair will to-morrow be elected U. S. Senator for Nevada, to succeed William Sharon. Mr. Fair will doubtless do himself justice in his new position, and is likely to give faithful attendance to his duties. At all events, he will be an improvement on Mr. Sharon.

It is said in New York that Vice-President Arthur will soon be married to Mrs. Marshall O. Roberts, a widow with four millions. If the marriage takes place, the Nation never need pension him.

Gen. Weaver thinks the Morey letter was forged by a well known Democrat, and expects to be able to furnish in a few days conclusive proof of the man's guilt.

The statement comes from Washington that Nevada's total population as determined by the late census, is 62,265.

Should the report that the Chilians have captured Lima prove true, the war in South America is virtually ended.

John S. Hittell has left the Alta, and his place is filled by Vincent Ryan.

The Big Bank Suit.

Suit is about to be commenced in the District Court by Wm. Thompson, representing creditors of the Reno Savings Bank, against the Directors, and, perhaps, the stockholders of that corporation. Lindsay & Dickson, of Reno, and —— & Hiles, of Virginia, are attorneys for the plaintiff. They have been for some time engaged in working up the case. Mr. Thompson says that a good many claims against the bank have been placed in his hands, and that they will amount to between $30,000 and $40,000.

The Norman Horses.

Mr. Perry writes that his horses are in excellent condition, having stood their journey well. They are all of the best blood, and will produce the very best class of work and draught horses if bred with Nevada stock. They are well suited to this climate, and are in every way calculated to elevate the herds of Nevada stock raisers.

HELL AND DAMNATION.

RENO, January 9, '81.

EDITOR GAZETTE:—The Rev. Mr. Morgan has rushed into print to defend the comfortable doctrine of the eternal damnation of the finally impenitent, which doctrine he asserts is finally taught in the Bible. It is true that many passages in the received English version of that famous work appear to teach what the reverend gentleman so confidently affirms. But many of the best biblical scholars deny that in the original text those passages bear such an interpretation. Yet, being a plain, unlettered man, it would be unbending in me to dispute that point with a gentleman of the Rev. Mr. Morgan's scholarship. For the discussion of this subject there are broader grounds, upon which I may more safely venture.

Men with brains in their heads and hearts in their breasts are no longer bound to limit their beliefs by the twisted texts of the scriptures. The Bible is full of errors, contradictions, impossibilities. Few educated men outside of the pulpit to-day believe it a work of inspiration. The noblest feelings of the human heart and the highest aspirations of the human soul find expression in its pages; so also do the darkest passions and the most abject superstitions. Each of the human authors of the Bible has expressed in its pages his individual conception of God. The God of Moses and the God of the Apostles of Jesus are essentially different beings; the one a bloodthirsty, self-glorying monster, smiling while whole cities were "put to the sword" in his name; the other a Heavenly Father beaming with infinite love and divine compassion for human sorrow. There is vast good and vast evil in the Bible; it is our wisdom to choose the one and reject the other. In this choice the principles of right and justice and love—from what source soever originating, springing eternal in the human heart—must be our guide.

No intelligent man, unfettered by Bible teachings, can believe for a moment the horrible doctrine of eternal damnation. What? Make a creature with human passions; send him into a world full of temptations for those passions; and if he falls, perhaps but once in a brief lifetime, damn him to eternal torment! Endow a man with reason; let him, in honest exercise of that reason, reject the doctrine of Christianity; then for his honest mistake fling him in hell to stay forever and ever—can God do these things? And if He is capable of such atrocities, shall we worship such a being? No. Rather let us refuse with Mill to worship such a deity, though we broil in hell for it hereafter.

On Saturday he showed symptoms of small-pox, and was removed to the pest house. To-day the patient is doing well, and is not considered in any danger. His case is a mild form of varioloid. Mr. Skinner was to-day relieved from the care of the man, a nurse having been hired to take his place.

AN UNFAITHFUL Husband.

The Silvert State says: "Nearly every wife will remember Marancy, who married Sarah Sam Pollard, the Tuscarora 'What is it,' some two or three years ago. It was said, that though Pollard dressed in the garb of man and assumed masculine airs and habits, Pollard was really a woman. It now appears that Marancy has grown tired of her nondescript partner and separated from it. She is said to have married a man at Carlin recently, totally ignoring her former marriage with Pollard."
